

Name: _____

Date: _____

ELA; Period _____

Conflict 4-Square Rubric- Daily Grade

Detailed Explanation of Conflict

Examples of conflict can come from the same or various TV shows, books or movies. The student will write a paragraph explaining the character’s conflict with a specific opposing force. The student’s explanation must be a CLEAR, DETAILED paragraph containing 4 to 5 sentences. The paragraph must also explain how the conflict is resolved.

Character vs. _____ 20 _____

Title: _____

Character vs. _____ 20 _____

Title: _____

Character vs. _____ 20 _____

Title: _____

Character vs. _____ 20 _____

Title: _____

Illustrations 8 _____

Each conflict/box must have an illustrations that is a representation of the conflict being described.

CUPS 12 _____

The student’s writing is free from errors in capitalization, grammar usage, punctuation and spelling.

Total/Grade =====

Teacher’s Comments: