

Name _____

Due: 10-13-15

ELA; Period _____

Writing Thought Book B - Focus: Figurative Language

Personification (Sentence clearly gives a non-living thing human characteristics)	20	_____
Onomatopoeia (Word used is a word that imitates sound)	20	_____
Simile (Sentence compares two unlike things and clearly states the similar quality)	20	_____
Hyperbole (The sentences is a huge exaggeration in which the Reader can infer what the writer is conveying)	20	_____
Other Details (Illustration connects to the writing. Catchy title and important words are capitalized)	20	_____

---

---

Grade _____

Name _____

Due: 10-13-15

ELA; Period _____

Writing Thought Book B - Focus: Figurative Language

Personification (Sentence clearly gives a non-living thing human characteristics)	20	_____
Onomatopoeia (Word used is a word that imitates sound)	20	_____
Simile (Sentence compares two unlike things and clearly states the similar quality)	20	_____
Hyperbole (The sentences is a huge exaggeration in which the Reader can infer what the writer is conveying)	20	_____
Other Details (Illustration connects to the writing. Catchy title and important words are capitalized)	20	_____

Grade _____